

Founded in 1988, Purity Flexipack Limited is an innovative printer and converter of flexible packaging specializing in ROLL fed film, different type of packing pouches in various laminate structures with state-of-the-art technologies to ensure the best quality and consistency.

We are committed to providing unparalleled quality products coupled with responsive and professional communication. We will always look to increase our value to our customers through continuous improvement efforts and technological advancements. Our organization is dynamic and ever evolving to meet the needs and wants of the market and our customer as competencies and resources allow.